

Organic South West, Duchy College and Transition Towns Falmouth, Penwith, Truro present:

Do you want to get more involved with a local food community?

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) day

with Nick Weir, CSA specialist from Stroud

Truro City Hall, Saturday 8 March 2008, 10am - 4pm

10am - 1pm - What is a CSA? How do they work?

1pm - 2pm - Light local lunch

2pm - 4pm - Workshops: How to develop your own CSA

Local CSA presentations from:

Paul Martin - Social economy & co-operative development Cornwall Ltd

Dylan Keating & Wind Rose Morris, CSA Lowarth Brogh

Also evening event with Nick Weir in Penzance, 7 March from 7pm

Ticket cost: £3 (for morning or evening event) £5 (whole day, inc. lunch)

ADVANCE BOOKING ESSENTIAL - CALL 0845 458 7485

Community Supported Agriculture: Helping to cultivate communities

I would like to attend the “Community Supported Agriculture” event.

I enclose a cheque for :

- ☐ £3 - evening session 7/3/2008
- ☐ £3 - just morning session 8/3/2008
- ☐ £5 - whole day, inc. lunch 8/3/2008

made payable to:

Duchy College. Please forward your payment to:

Rural Business School

Duchy College

Stoke Climsland, Callington

Cornwall, PL17 8PB.

Tel 0845 458 7485 or email rbs@duchy.ac.uk

Name

Address

.....Postcode

